16. BRIEF FACTS OF THE CASE:

16.1. The Indian Mujahedeen, declared as an unlawful association as per the provisions of the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act 1967, initially started as a small group called as 'Usaba' in Bhatkal, Karnataka State. In Arabic, 'Usaba' means 'congregation'. According to the accused, it is a group of men, with more than 11 members but less than 40 and according to the accused Md. Ahmed Siddibapa (A-5) "the main object of Usaba is to collect the persons having same mentality and dedication to do something". Objectives of the Bhatkal Usaba included waging jihad or holy war against the Hindus, other communities and the Indian State. It is revealed that the other members of the group were Iqbal Bhatkal, accused Riyaz Bhatkal (A1), Jasim, Shabbir, Sajid, Afeef, Gora Ismail @ White Uncle, Sultan, Tariq Anjum and Fasih Mahmood apart from the accused Md. Ahmed Siddibapa (A5). Usaba meetings were held on regular basis (generally on every Friday) in the house of Iqbal Bhatkal, in which issues like weapon training, finance, talent spotting, spiritual discourse and other matters pertaining to procurement of logistics were discussed. Later it expanded its operations also to Azamgarh, Pune and other places in India. The group did not assign a suitable name until they sent the email claiming the Uttar Pradesh Courts Blasts (2007) to the media. The media picked up the term 'Indian Mujahedeen' mentioned in the email instantly, and the nomenclature of 'Indian Mujahedeen' was given to the outfit. Thus, the operatives adopted the name Indian mujahedeen, as they liked it, with a designed logo.

16.2. The role of the Indian mujahidin in the commission of terrorist incidents was revealed for the first time through the aforesaid email sent to certain media channels/news networks, immediately after the bombings in the courts of Varanasi, Faizabad (Ayodhya) and Lucknow in Uttar Pradesh on 23.11.2007. Through this email, the Indian Mujahideen also claimed the responsibilities for the earlier terrorist incidents which occurred at Varanasi on 7.3.2006, Mumbai Serial Blasts dated 11.7.2006 and the Hyderabad Twin Blasts at Gokul Chat and Lumbini Park dated 25.8.2007. The group mentioned that the Babri Masjid demolition and Gujarat riots are the major reasons for adopting the violent path by them. The Indian mujahidin through further emails also owned the responsibility of several other terrorist attacks which occurred in Jaipur on 13.5.2008, serial blasts in Ahmedabad on 26.7.2008 and serial blasts in Delhi on 13.9.2008 etc.
